Dear friends and supporters,

The last four weeks have demonstrated in extraordinary circumstances, why it is time to investigate the shadowy circumstances behind the AUKUS deal and what it really means to our nation and our community.

We have all witnessed the international rules-based order come under unprecedented attack from our most powerful ally. We have questions that need to be asked and answered in public forums and written submissions, and your support has made that possible.

With thanks to your patience, we are very excited to announce that as early as next week we will be able to announce the names of distinguished Australians who have volunteered to become commissioners in the public inquiry into AUKUS.

The workplan is complete so the call for submissions will also be announced, along with sites for the public hearings of this inquiry. This would not have been possible without your support, and we thank you for that and hope we will meet some of you throughout this inquiry process.

We will continue to keep you updated on these critical announcements. In the meantime, we ask that you continue to support the campaign by sharing this page with your networks. For more news, visit our website: <https://aukuspublicinquiry.netlify.app/>
